Dear John:

I received your letter of 13 November today.

FOIAb3b1

I hope you understand that I appreciate the service you have rendered [REDACTED] and I know of no occasion on which your professional competence or duty performance has been questioned. However the circumstances leading up to and surrounding my letter of 30 October 1950 were entirely apart from these factors and I regret that they involve matters over which I am sure you realize [REDACTED] has absolutely no control. There is little I can say except that I think you have acted wisely in this matter.

[REDACTED] will miss your services and we all wish you the very best of luck.

Sincerely,
